PORTE WARNED.

Russia and Austria-Hungary
Send Instructions to Their Ambassadors in Turkey.

WILL INSIST UPON THE REFORMS

They Deplore the Excesses and the Cruelties From Which the Peaceful Inhabitants Suffer.

These Instructions Are the Outcome of the Conference Held Between the Czar and Emperor Francis Joseph at Muerztstag.

Vienna, Oct. 5.—As an outcome of the conference between the czar and Emperor Francis Joseph at Muerztstag the governments of Austria and Russia have sent the following identical telegram to the ambassadors of those countries in Constantinople. The telegrams were couched in the following terms:

"You were recently instructed to declare that Austria-Hungary and Russia adhere to the task of pacification which they have undertaken and are resolved to preserve the program drawn up at the beginning of the year, notwithstanding the difficulties hitherto opposed to its execution. For, indeed, while on the one hand the revolutionary committees have provoked disturbances and deterred the Christian population of the vilayets from co-operating in the execution of the reforms, on the other hand, the representatives of the sublime porte entrusted with their application have been generally wanting in the necessary zeal and have not been imbued with the idea which inspired these measures. Both powers are united in the determination to show that it is their firm resolve to insist upon the execution in their entirety of those reforms which was accepted by the porte and which are calculated to guarantee general security. In this connection you will receive detailed instructions without delay.

"While the powers recognize to the full extent the porte's right and duty to suppress the disorders fostered by the insurrectionary agitation of the Macedonian committee, they at the same time deplore the fact that this suppression was accompanied by excesses and cruelties from which the peaceful inhabitants suffered. It therefore appears to them to be their urgent duty to come to the assistance of the victims of these regrettable occurrences, and the above-mentioned instructions will acquaint you with the details of the humanitarian action which they deem necessary with the object of supporting the inhabitants who have been deprived of all means of existence, facilitating their repatriation and restoring the villages, churches and schools destroyed by fire.

"The Austro-Hungarian and Russian governments entertain the firm hope that their continued endeavors to establish a lasting peace in the sorely tried provinces will attain their object and they are convinced that their impartial advice will be heeded by all to whom it is addressed in their own interests.

"By command of his majesty, my august master, I request you to communicate the foregoing to the Ottoman government after you have arrived at an understanding with your Russian (or Austrian) colleague, who has received identical instructions."

RIOT AT DUNSHAUGHLIN.

Two Rival Political Factions Came to Blows.

London, Oct. 5.—The candidature of John Howard Parnell, brother of the late Charles Stewart Parnell, at the parliamentary election for South Meath, which is deeply resented by the Redmonites, led to a riot Saturday when John Redmond and other nationalists went to speak in support of their candidate, David Sheehy. The rival factions came to blows at Dunshaughlin. Bludgeons and stones were used and many persons were injured. John Redmond in his speech denounced J. H. Parnell as a traitor to the Irish unity.

Two Thousand Turks Killed.
Salonica, Oct. 5.—The Bulgarian notables informed the authorities that a series of fresh outrages in Salonica is being planned. It is reported that 20 Turkish villages in the Razlog district have been burned. The large village of Bonisko is said to have been destroyed and its 2,000 Turkish inhabitants killed.

Livingston, Mont., Oct. 5.—Brig. Gen. William P. Carlin, U. S. A., retired, died on an east-bound Northern Pacific train while coming over the mountains just west of this city. Gen. Carlin was en route to Omaha.

IN A FIGHT WITH NEGROES.

A White Man Was Killed and Another Seriously Wounded.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 5.—Robert Dalton Burdine, a well-known young man, was murdered, and W. D. Hays, his cousin, probably fatally hurt in a fight with Negroes on the river front Sunday afternoon. The young men, who are members of the Louisville Boat club, left for a sail in the afternoon accompanied by several fellow club members, and as they were passing Towhead Island were attacked by several Negroes, who threw lumps of coal into the boat. The boat tied up and its occupants started after the Negroes, chasing them into a yard where Will Fletcher, colored, seized an ax and striking Burdine over the head, killed him instantly. Hays attempted to secure the ax from the Negro, but was assaulted from behind and badly injured. The police arrested four Negroes, including Fletcher, although fully 20 were concerned in the assault.

SHANKLIN'S FUNERAL.

The Cortege One of the Longest Seen in Lexington.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 5.—The body of the late Elliott W. Shanklin was laid in its final resting place Sunday. The funeral cortege was one of the longest seen in this city and a large number of horsemen were present. The local lodge of Elks held their ritual at the grave. Over 1,000 people attended. Horace W. Wilson, who will conduct the trots here in lieu of Shanklin, was in attendance.

May Use Government's Engines.

Fort Thomas, Ky., Oct. 5.—The board of Highland trustees has been notified by the officers at the post that the use of the steam fire engine recently purchased by the war department for the protection of the government's barracks may be secured by the Highland district if the district trustees will make arrangements for paying the water company for water used in suppressing conflagrations. It is more than likely that an agreement will be effected by which fire plugs will be installed, so that water can be secured.

The Revenue Law Upheld.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 5.—In the circuit court Judge Cantrill rendered a judgment in favor of the state auditor for $261 against Strader Bros., tobacco manufacturers of Louisville, for refusing to report to the auditor the amount of tobacco manufactured by them the last fiscal year. The judgment upholds the validity of the new revenue law, which requires such report to be made, and a number of similar cases are awaiting a final decision in this case.

Kills Threatening Negro.

Williamstown, Ky., Oct. 5.—"Benny" Kells, a white man, shot and fatally wounded Fred Thomas, colored, Sunday afternoon. Thomas struck Frank Brumback, and Kells told him "not to hit that old man," when the Negro whipped out his knife and said, "I can whip both of you," and started toward Kells, who shot him. Kells was arrested and is now in jail.

Thoroughbreds to Be Sold.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 5.—Mrs. John M. Clay has consigned all the horses of the Ashland stud, consisting of stallions, brood mares, yearlings and weanlings, to W. T. W. Woodard for closing out sale November 18. The farm was established in 1831 by Henry Clay, the great commoner. Ashland stud has been the birth place of many famous horses.

Two Convicted and Two Released.

Barboursville, Ky., Oct. 5.—Robert and Dan Allen have been convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment for the assassination of Dulaney Peters. Joseph and Sam Allen were acquitted. The case closed at Booneville. The jury on first ballot stood four for hanging, four for life imprisonment and four for acquittal.

Reached the Dollar Mark.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 5.—The long expected advance in the price of crude oil occurred the earlier part of the week, and for the first time in the history of the field the oil from the lower Kentucky and Tennessee developments is quoted in figures with a dollar mark before them.

Republicans Nominate a Democrat.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., Oct. 5.—Republicans of this city met and unanimously nominated Judge Howard R. French for re-election as circuit court clerk. Judge French is a Jefferson democrat, but was elected to his present office by the republicans three years ago.

Died From Blood Poisoning.

Covington, Ky., Oct. 5.—Anthony Axer, a former saloonist, died at the late home of his mother, 126 West Eighth street, early Sunday morning of blood poisoning. He was a brother of Joseph Axer, who died in the Philippines while serving his country.

VESSEL CAPSIZED.

During a Squall on Lake Michigan
the Steamer E. H. Hackley Went to the Bottom.

TWELVE PERSONS WERE DROWNED

The Goodrich Line Steamer Sheboygan
Rescued the Seven Other Persons on Board.

They Were Found Floating About on Pieces of Wreckage and Were Exhausted From Their Struggle Against Drowning.

Marinette, Wis., Oct. 5.—During a squall Saturday night on Lake Michigan the steamer Erie H. Hackley capsized and 12 persons were drowned. The Goodrich line steamer Sheboygan rescued the other seven persons on board the Hackley, after they had floated about on pieces of wreckage all night. Report of the disaster reached Marinette Sunday.

The Hackley was struck by the squall when seven miles off Froen Island. The upper work was blown away before the men could reach a haven. The boat then turned over and went down in deep water.

The drowned: George LeClaire, jr., Jacksonport, Wis.; Joseph V. Crus, captain of the Hackley, Fish Creek; Edna Barringer, Lawrence Barringer, Fish Creek; Henry Rabitoy, Fish Creek; Carl Kelly, Fish Creek; Miss Frances Vincent; Miss Vincent's sister, Egg Harbor, Wis.; Freeman Thorp, Fish Creek; Nels Nelson, Sturgeon Bay; Frank Fitzgibbons, Jacksonport; T. Truchly, cook.

Rescued: Frank Blakeley, purser, Fish Creek; Orrin Rollin, engineer, Fish Creek; Milton Hasen, Blaine McSweeney, Fish Creek; two men of Ellison Bay, Wis.

As the Hackley went to bottom those who would and could seized on floating pieces of wreckage, while the women and three or four of the men, failing to find any object to which to cling, sank in the raging sea, so far as is known.

The waves were rolling high and several of those who at first saved themselves from immediate death lost strength and sank. It was several hours after the Hackley sank before the Sheboygan hove within hailing distance. The shouts of the floating men attracted the attention of the sailors on the Sheboygan and every assistance was loaned.

The roughness of the lake made rescue slow, but the officers of the Sheboygan feel sure that they took aboard every person afloat. Some of the persons who were rescued say that it is possible that one or more of the 12 persons missing may have escaped north. This view is not given much credence by the sailors of the Sheboygan.

The Sheboygan made into Fish Creek when hope of rescuing other persons seemed improbable. The rescued persons were so exhausted from their struggle against drowning that they were unable for some time to tell anything about the wreck.

The persons saved by the Sheboygan say that with the crashing away of the upper works all persons aboard the Hackley ran on deck. Hasty preparations for a plunge into the water were begun, but before any plans could be carried out, the boat listed, turned over and went down like a rock.

Search is still being made for any person who may have escaped death and for the bodies of those who were drowned.

VERDICT WAS CHEERED.

Miss Mary Archer Awarded Heavy
Damages By a Jury.

London, Ont., Oct. 5.—Miss Mary Archer, formerly of Milwaukee, who sued the Sacred Heart convent for damages for dismissal from the order and incarceration in an asylum on the ground of insanity, and also for remuneration for 17 years services, has been awarded $8,000 damages, $3,000 for wages and $5,000 for wrongful dismissal after her liberation from the asylum. The verdict of the jury was cheered in court.

Reserve Policeman Killed.

Pittsburg, Oct. 5.—Andrew J. Kelly, a reserve policeman, was shot and killed Sunday night while trying to arrest Dusan Melicz, a Hungarian. Melicz was engaged in a struggle with a young companion when Kelly interfered. Melicz drew a revolver and fired three shots at Kelly, two taking effect.

The Second Victim Dead.

Monticello, Ky., Oct. 5.—A. B. Adams, the oil driller who was burned in a gas explosion on the Kentucky Colonel Oil Co.'s field last week, died Saturday, making the second victim of the explosion.

ENCOURAGING OUTLOOK.

The Local Y. M. C. A. Enters on New Year
Free of Debt—Splendid Addresses at Annual Meeting Last Night.

The annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held at the First Baptist Church last night, the other churches uniting in the service. A fine audience was present, notwithstanding the inclement weather.

Judge A. M. J. Cochran, Chairman of the Board of Directors, presided. After reading of the scriptures by Rev. F. W. Harrop, and prayer by Rev. R. E. Moss, the annual report showing a summary of the work accomplished by the association was presented by Secretary Brown. Treasurer James B. Wood's report followed, showing that the deficit from previous year had been paid, all expenses for the last year settled and there was a small balance of 35 cents on hand. This is one of the most encouraging reports in years.

Splendid addresses were then delivered by Rev. Dr. Evans, Rev. Dr. McCready, of this city, and Dr. J. A. Stuckey, of Lexington, setting forth the value of the association to the city, and appealing for a larger and more liberal support of the association, in the interest of the young men of the city. Judge Cochran also made an earnest plea urging the people to support the association, if for no other reason, as a matter of loyalty to the city and pride in her institutions.

The directors and friends of the association feel especially grateful to Dr. Stuckey for his valuable assistance on this occasion. He left his professional engagements at Lexington and came and delivered two powerful addresses free of any charge to the association.

Members of the various choirs assisted in the music. A solo by Miss Florence Hays was the feature of the song service.

SIX HORSES PERISHED

In a Destructive Fire at Col. W. W. Baldwin's Saturday Night—Loss About $13,000, With $3,300 Insurance.

"Auvergne," the home of Col. W. W. Baldwin, was visited by a destructive fire between 12 and 1 o'clock Saturday night. His large mule barn and two stables near by were completely destroyed, together with a large quantity of hay and other feed, two wagons and other farming implements. The barn was the largest and finest in the county.

In addition to this heavy loss, six fine horses perished in the flames, one of them valued at not less than $1,000 by Colonel Baldwin.

Fortunately the wind was not blowing towards the family residence, otherwise it too would probably have been destroyed.

The loss is a very heavy one, as Col. Baldwin places the total at about $13,000, and the property was insured for only $3,300. The insurance is in Mr. W. Holton Key's agency.

In his efforts to save some of the property Col. Baldwin fell and injured himself, but not seriously. He is able to go about and hopes to soon be all right again.

It is not known how the fire originated, but it is thought thieves may have started it while looking for chickens.

SPECIAL SERVICE.

This Government Will Pay Official
Tribute to the Memory of Sir Michael Herbert.

WILL BE HELD NEXT TUESDAY.

President Roosevelt, His Cabinet, the Diplomatic Corps and Others
Will Attend.

It is Expected That the Funeral of the British Ambassador Will Take Place About the Same
Time in England.

Washington, Oct. 5.—In a memorial service to be held at St. John's church on Tuesday, October 6, Rev. Cotton Smith, the rector, officiating, this government will pay official tribute to the memory of Rt. Hon. Sir Michael H. Herbert, G. C. M. G. A., C. B., his Britannic majesty's ambassador to the United States, who died September 30. The president, his cabinet and the diplomatic corps will attend the services.

Mr. Arthur Balkes, first secretary of embassy and charge d'affaires ad-interim, will receive Monday by cable from King Edward designation to be present as the personal representative of his majesty. In the absence of Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, Senor de Asprez, the Mexican ambassador, will be the acting dean of the corps, and will rank next to the president. In the event that he is able to reach Washington in time, Baron Von Sternberg, the German ambassador, who was Sir Michael's closest friend in the corps, will attend as the personal representative of Emperor William. Baron Sternburg is now at his summer home in New Hampshire.

Invitations to the service were issued from the state department Sunday by Mr. Loomis, the acting secretary of state, to the officials of the Washington government and members of the diplomatic corps. Prominent army and navy officials will also be present, and it is expected that they and the members of the corps will be in uniform.

This service is without precedent. Sir Michael is the only ambassador accredited to this government who has died while absent on leave. The service is in accordance with the wishes of the president, who was for years a warm personal friend of Sir Michael.

Mr. Loomis was suddenly called to his home in Ohio Sunday but hopes to return to Washington on Tuesday.

Sir Michael and Lady Herbert were members of St. John's church, as was Lord Pauncefoot, whose funeral was held there last year.

It is expected that the funeral of the British ambassador will take place about the same time on Tuesday at his home in England.

London, Oct. 5.—By the king's command a memorial service for Sir Michael Herbert will be held in Marlborough House chapel, adjoining St. James palace, on Tuesday afternoon. Special seats will be reserved for members of the diplomatic corps.

THE PANAMA CANAL.

No Immediate Steps Will Be Taken in Its Favor at Bogota.

Paris, Oct. 5.—The Paris edition of the New York Herald publishes a dispatch from Bogota, via Panama, which says that no immediate steps will be taken in favor of the canal. The opponents of the treaty are apparently pleased to see the United States feign to return to the Nicaraguan route. President Roosevelt's attitude is interpreted at Bogota as a sign that he will wait till August if necessary and that the United States will eventually accept Colombia's conditions.

POST SEASON GAMES.

Cincinnati Nationals Took the Second Game From the Clevelanders.

Mr. Martin Crowell is improving after an illness of several days at his home on Lee street.

The C. and O. No. 5 was run in two sections Sunday afternoon on account of the heavy passenger traffic.

Mr. T. F. Killgore has qualified as administrator of the late Mrs. Maria Stevens, with Charles Wallingford and James Kirk sureties.

Mr. Thomas A. Williams, living on the Fleming pike, brought to the BULLETIN office Saturday a freak in the shape of a triple ear of corn.

A heavy coat of rock is being spread on Second street, Fifth ward. If the city would have this rolled and a fine coat added it would give a nice street.

State Revenue Agent Albritton has created a big stir in Danville by filing seventy-three back tax suits against that many of the richest and most prominent men in the community.

First proclamation of the marriage of Mr. Patrick Mackey, of the Washington neighborhood, and Miss Fury, of Mayfield, was announced at St. Patrick's Church Sunday morning.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Pollitt died Sunday morning at the family residence on East Second street, aged three days. The remains were taken to Mt. Carmel this morning for burial.

Ten tanks of water are being hauled from Paris to Winchester every day for use in the engines on the L. and N. The drought is worse in Clark County probably than in any other section. The Winchester ice plant had to shut down on account of not being able to get water.

An attempt to defraud the State out of $730 by the raising of witness claims in the Caleb Powers case was unearthed in the State Auditor's office. The claims were bought at Georgetown by W. H. Culton, who has figured in the Goebel murder trials, and afterward transferred to J. Travis Cobb, of Richmond, who presented them for payment. The amount of claims as turned in was $2,660.02, when it should have been $1,930.02. The State will lose nothing by the forgeries.

MR. WM. J. SCOTT.

An Honored Citizen of Paterson, N. J.,
Died Last Thursday—Wife is a Daughter of Late Hamilton Gray.

The Paterson (N. J.) papers announce the death of Mr. Wm. J. Scott as the result of an accident fracturing the bones of his face and terminating on the third day in "tetanus," which went rapidly to a fatal issue. He died last Thursday at his home near Paterson.

Mr. Scott was highly esteemed in the community in which he lived and was honored with important official positions for many years. He was a gentleman of character and possessed business qualifications of first order. A wife and six children survive. Mrs. Scott was a daughter of the late Hamilton Gray, and a brilliant and charming woman. The three eldest sons are successful and honored men of business in the East.

Mrs. I. S. Kay, formerly of this city, has a position now with the Mabley & Carew Company of Cincinnati.

Maria Taylor, colored, died Saturday at her home on the Taylor's Mill pike and will be buried this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

GEORGE H. FRANK & CO.

FRANK MELVILLE IN HIS GREAT ACT WITH SEVENTY HORSES.

MELVILLE AT TOP OF LIVING MONUMENT OF HORSES.

A group of "old-timers" were standing on the street corner a few days ago discussing the approaching visit of the great Barnum & Bailey Circus. They had just been given a copy of the illuminated magazine published by the "greatest show on earth" and were perusing its contents when one of the number of "old-timers" said: "It can't be possible."

"What can't be possible?" queried one of his companions.

"Why," he responded, "it states here that Frank Melville is the arena director. That can't be, Frank Melville has certainly been dead for many years. I remember seeing him ride when I was a mere boy, and I am no chicken."

"You're wrong," chimed in another of the group, "for I saw him and was talking with him in Madison Square Garden last April when the show was playing there, the greatest ever organized in the world. Speaking of Frank Melville, I consider him the greatest man on the face of the globe in his line. He knows the circus business from A. to Z. Frank served part of his apprenticeship in Australia, for in the old days boys were debentured for riders as for any other trade and were bound for seven years. He has been identified with the saw-dust ring for half a century yet he scarcely appears to be more than forty-five years of age. The value of regular living is well illustrated in Frank. He was always a genius in the business and he originated many of the greatest acts ever presented and they haven't been confined to his acts either. I never knew a more versatile man than Mr. Melville. Aside from comprehensive practical knowledge of the circus, he is a capable linguist, having traveled all over the world, is a writer of ability and has contributed much to the stage as the author of several successful plays. He versifies well, and in the winter months, devotes a great deal of his time to humorous paragraphic work. Dead! he's the liveliest and healthiest corpse I ever knew or heard of. Wait until you see his great act in which he introduces seventy horses and ponies—nothing like it has ever been seen. To me, it is the feature of the Barnum & Bailey Circus.

SMITH'S,
The New Shoe Store!

$3.50

The Bee Hive!

The Question Now Is Who Can Help You Most With Fall Shopping?

The answer is partly told in this advertisement, but fully told by a visit to the store. To-day's talk will have ready-made goods and this department we are especially proud of for we believe that there are few stores that show and sell the amount of ready-made goods that we do. (Of course we mean towns the size of Maysville.)

LADIES' SUITS—We are told daily that the best line of suits in town are here and at the rate we are selling them, there is no doubt of it. Suits from $10 up, but we are selling more from $15 to $35.

CLOAKS—From the one day old to any age, and while the weather is warm of course you do not feel like buying, but did you know that the best choice is the early one? Almost 1000 garments to select from, and where in northern Kentucky can you get such a selection? Come and look even if you are not ready.

HATS—Trimmed and ready-to-wear. For the very highest price hats you must go to the millinery store. We are only after the lady that cares to save a few dollars on a hat. $10 hats for $5 and we please you at the start—no coming back to see if it fits.

SHIRT WAISTS—In this line even our competitors admit we are supreme. "The Royal," the queen of the land; the best store in every town carries it. Price $1.49 and up.

WRAPPERS AND DRESSING SACKS—A little department by itself, but hardly an hour passes in the day that somebody isn't made happy by the provision we have made for her home comfort. 79c. and up and all cut full.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR—We fit up most of the brides from the five counties around us, and who is more particular than a bride? The best of undergarments are had here and fair prices rule.

STAR ROUTES.

Government Prohibits Speculative Bidding. Free Box Delivery and Collection of Mail to be Inaugurated.

The Postmaster General has issued an advertisement for bids on all star route mail contracts in Kentucky, the contracts to run for four years beginning July 1st, 1904. There are nine of these routes in Mason County.

Bidders and contractors are required under a new ruling to live on or near the route and to perform the service, or at least give it personal supervision. Speculative bidding has been prohibited.

Free box delivery and collection of mail by carriers on every route is also to be inaugurated under a recent ruling.

Bids must be made not later than Dec. 1st. Postmasters have blanks and can give full information in regard to bidding and rules governing the service.

Mr. John Schnelle, the newly-appointed C. and O. agent at Dover, will this week be promoted to the position of ticket agent at the company's Fourth Street Station, Cincinnati. Mr. Schnelle, is one of the best agents on the road and his promotion is merited. He is a son of Mr. F. Schnelle, of this city.

Don't think that because we carry the highest grades of clothing that we do not cater to those that want "good clothing," but at the same time practice economy. Our children's and boy's Suits and Overcoats ranging in price from $2 to $4 and our will prove a revelation to this class of buyers. The very best for the least money prevails in our house.

I want another pair of Shoes like the last pair I bought of you, is the customary salutation of our shoe customers. "This tells the story of our Shoe trade."

The Douglass and Hanan are our leaders. Our Corduroy Clothing, from children's knee pants up to men's hunting suits is the largest in the State.

An immense stock of Jeans Pants from 75 cts. to $1.25. Special low prices to out-of-town merchants on Jeans and Corduroy Pants and Duck Coats.

WE ARE SHORT

Of cash and "long" on a certain make of Field Fence, therefore this tale is told to interest you: During the scarcity of Field Fence last Spring we bought a lot of "Pittsburg Perfect" to help us out on hurry orders, many of our customers finding it inconvenient to wait longer for other delayed shipments. Having about two-thirds of a car-load of the Pittsburg product left, in 26, 32 and 47-inch widths, we are very anxious to dispose of same so as to reduce stock to about the proper proportions. To effect a speedy sale of what remains of the "Pittsburg Perfect" we are willing to cut the price quite liberally. It is a good article and is well liked by those who have fenced their fields with it, and we make the reduction only for the reason stated above. Come in and see what we can do.

GO RIGHT AT IT.

Friends and Neighbors in Maysville Will Show You How.

Get at the root of the trouble. Rubbing an aching back may relieve it, But it won't cure it. You must reach the root of it—the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills get right at it. Reach the cause, relieve the pain. They cure too, so Maysville people say. Mr. W. L. Nicholson, of 14 Court street, employed by Russell & Sons, grocers, says: "The use of Doan's Kidney Pills by anyone who does much riding will help an aching back so quickly he will wonder greatly at the prompt and effective riddance of the trouble. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Market streets, on the advice of a friend and the results obtained were so satisfactory that it is a pleasure to recommend the remedy to others whenever opportunity is offered."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—DOAN'S—and take no substitute.
